

Personal Guarantee Terms and Conditions

The Guarantor (jointly and severally if more than one) acknowledges the Supplier's execution of this Agreement and Scheduled Agreements with the Customer. The published Terms and Conditions of these Agreements have been acknowledged and agreed upon by both the Customer and the Guarantor.

The Guarantor provides an unconditional and irrevocable guarantee to Paycommplus. This guarantee ensures the timely payment by the Customer of all amounts due under the Agreement, as well as the proper performance and adherence to all other obligations by the Customer as outlined in this Agreement

The Guarantor's liability shall be considered a primary obligation. This liability will remain unaffected and not relieved in any manner prejudicial to Paycommplus, even in instances where Paycommplus grants time, waives or delays suing, or any other act, omission, circumstance, or legal provision that would otherwise release the Guarantor from liability if not for this provision.

The Guarantor acknowledges having reviewed the terms and conditions outlined in the Agreement
